REMARKS.

Some of our schools have been much above the average during the past year, but they can never reach perfection, until parents learn to labor in unison with the teacher. The child must hear the teacher criticised less, see more kindly interest manifested outside the school room and be taught respect for the teacher and the rules of the school.

Your Committee was unable to visit Miss Wilbur's school during the winter, but it seemed pleasant and orderly during the summer, the pupils making fair progress in their studies.

Mr. Sanborn had a very excellent school. There are some fine scholars in this District and their recitations prove they have studied dilligently and been taught thoroughly.

Miss Rowe's school was a successful one, showing she had fully earned her reputation as a teacher.

I was prevented visiting Miss Hazelton's school during the winter term, but the scholars showed marked improvement in their lessons and habits of study during the summer

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. L. A. BINGHAM, Supt. School Com.
